

Anaëlle Laplume
Regional Director, South-Midwest

Born and raised in the heart of Bordeaux, France, Anaëlle Laplume has always been surrounded by the world of fine wines. Growing up among 10,000 of the finest vineyards, she developed a deep-rooted passion for viticulture and oenology. Her formative years in Bordeaux, a region renowned globally for its wine production, instilled in her a profound appreciation and understanding of the complexities and nuances of wine.

With a specialization in fine wines, Anaëlle brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to her role as the Regional Director for the South-Midwest at Jordan Winery. Over the past eight years, she has honed her skills and expertise in the wine industry, earning a reputation for her dedication, insight and commitment to excellence. Her career is marked by a blend of technical proficiency and a heartfelt enthusiasm for wine, making her a respected and influential figure in the field.

Anaëlle's passion extends beyond just the production and selection of wine; she is deeply committed to sharing her knowledge and love for wine with others. She thrives on educating and engaging with wine enthusiasts and novices alike, always eager to discuss the intricate beauty of wine. Her approachable and enthusiastic nature makes her an exceptional ambassador for Jordan Winery, where she continues to inspire and educate others about the art and science of winemaking.

In her current role, Anaëlle oversees operations and fosters relationships within the South-Midwest region, ensuring that the legacy and quality of Jordan are upheld and celebrated. Her journey from the vineyards of Bordeaux to the dynamic wine markets of the South-Midwest is a testament to her unwavering dedication and passion for the world of wine.